Antonio Prohías is a famous Cuban artist whose anti-Castro cartoons have appeared in such publications as Bohemia (largest circulation of any Spanish language magazine), the daily Prensa Libre (Free Press) El Mundo, and the Sunday Oveja Negra (Black Sheep). He has won the "Juan Gualberto Gomez" award (the equivalent of our Cartoon Society's "Ruben") six times. On May 1st, three days before Castro henchmen took over what remained of Cuba's free press, Prohías fled to N.Y. stone broke. Once here, he came directly to MAD. Among the things he showed us was this captivating cartoon-sequence of friendly rivalry called

MADE FOR TV. All characters, with exception of the 1000+ laughing network, are the property of the 1000+ laughing network.

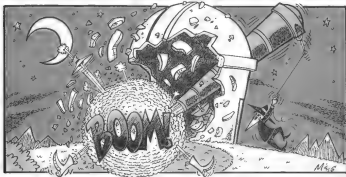

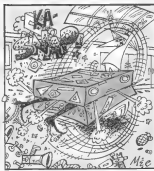

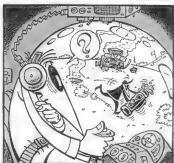

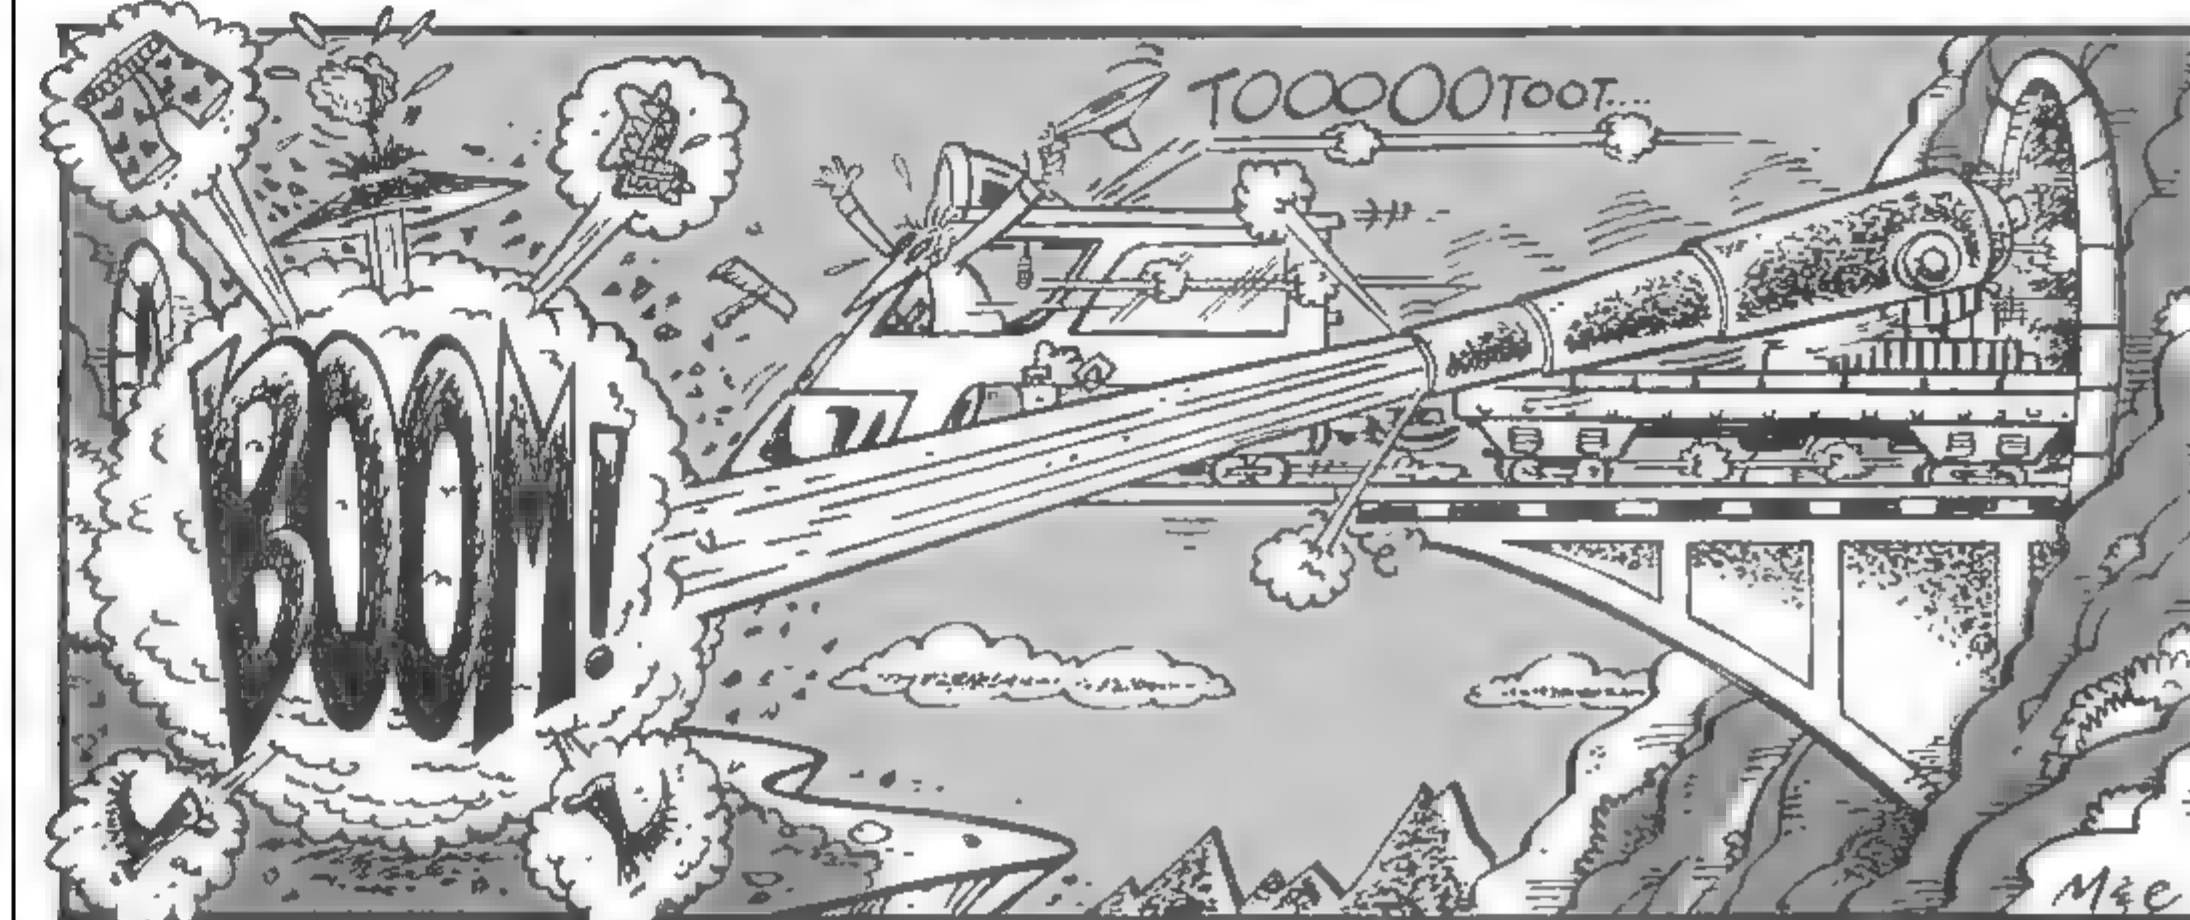

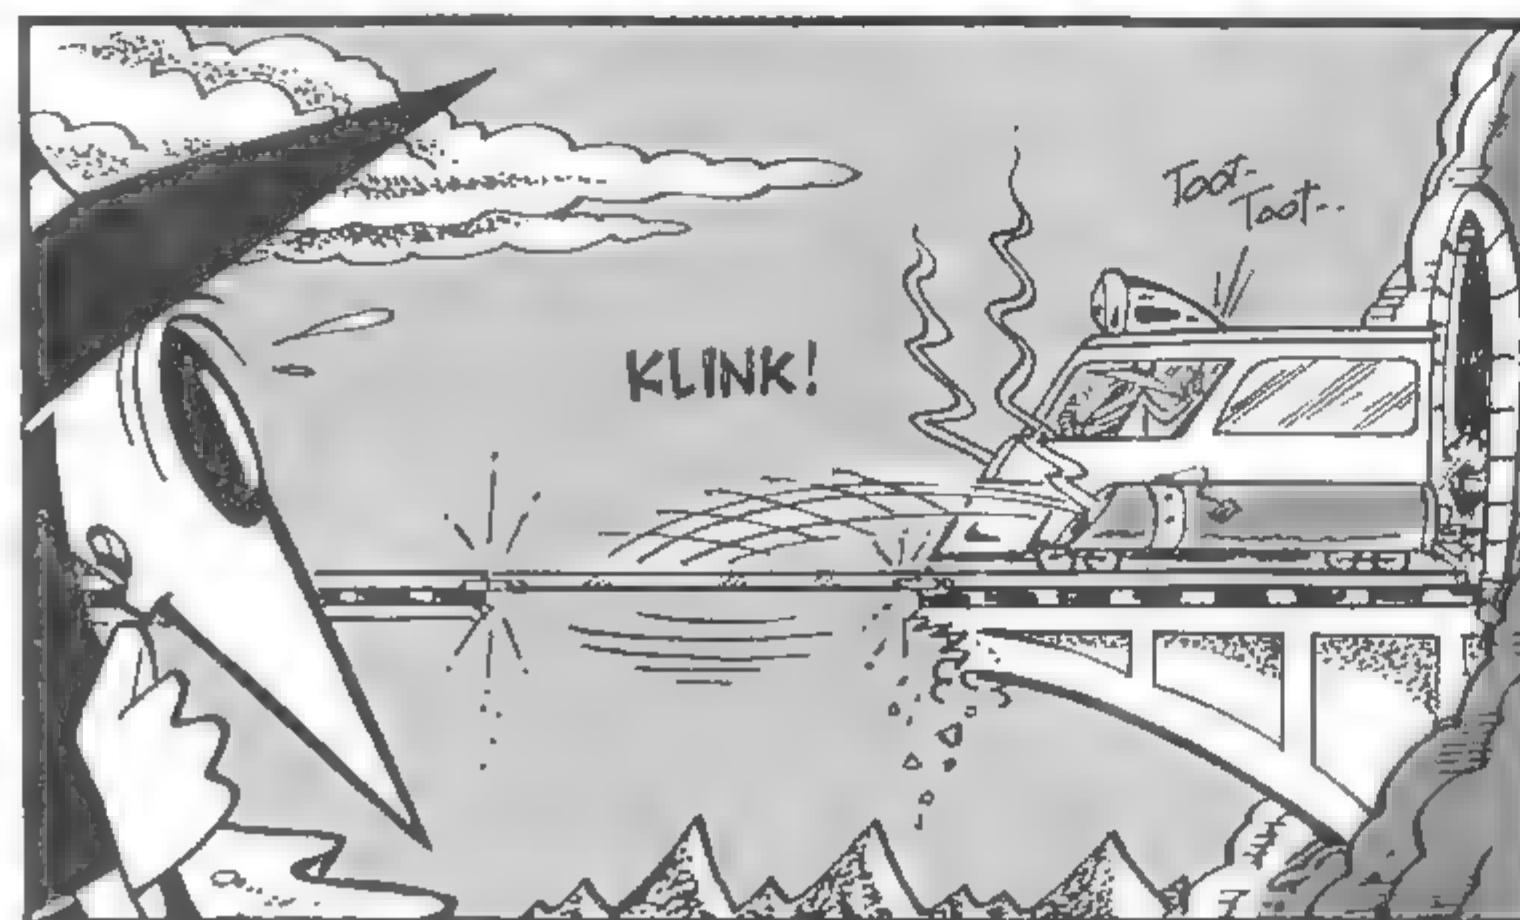

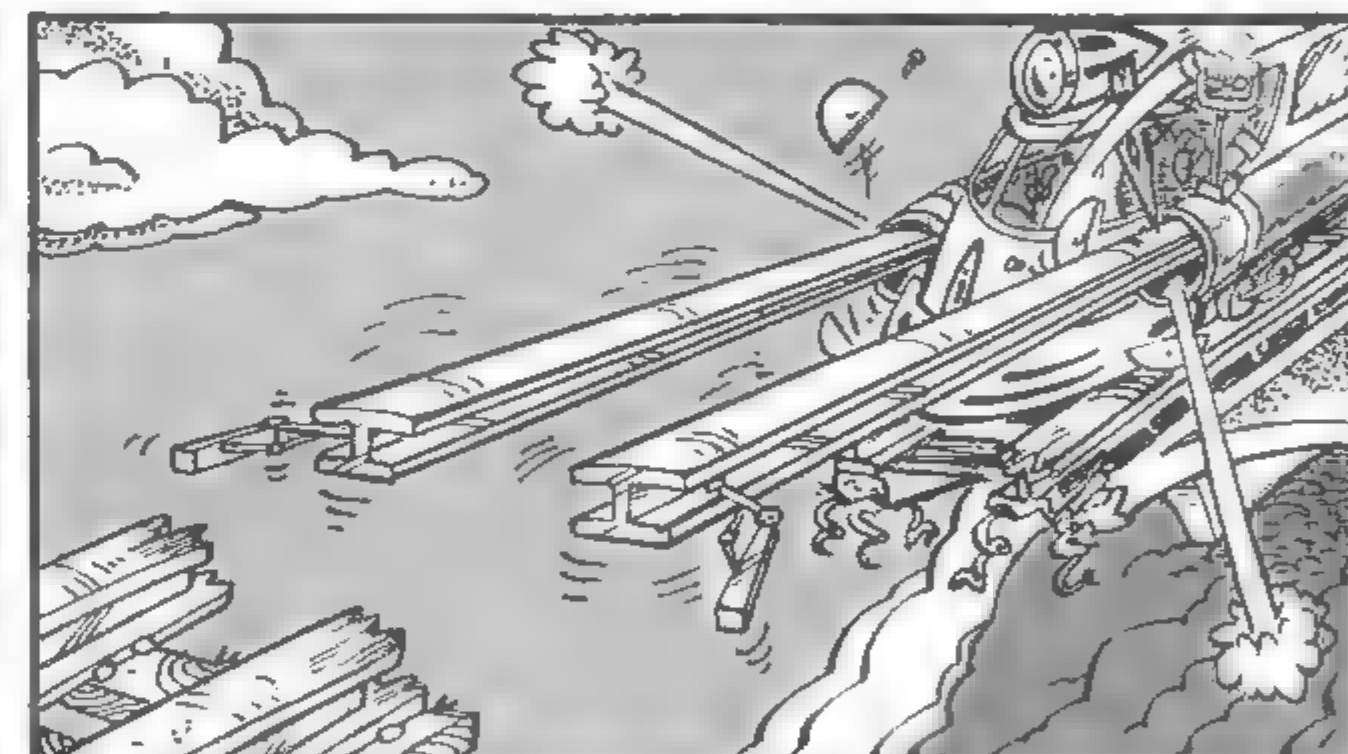

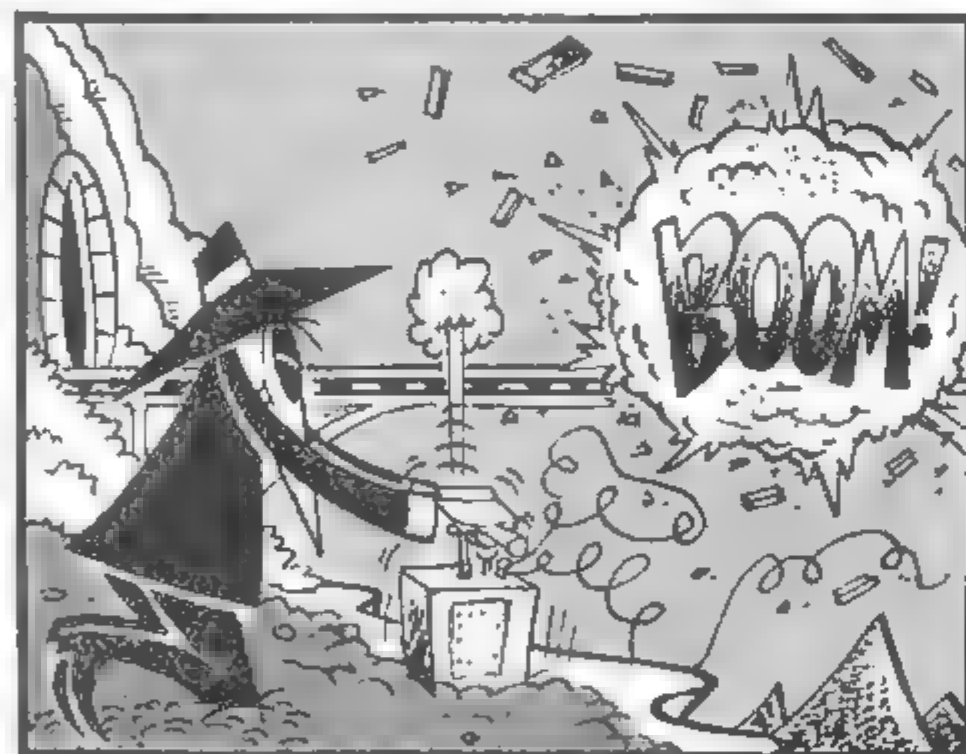

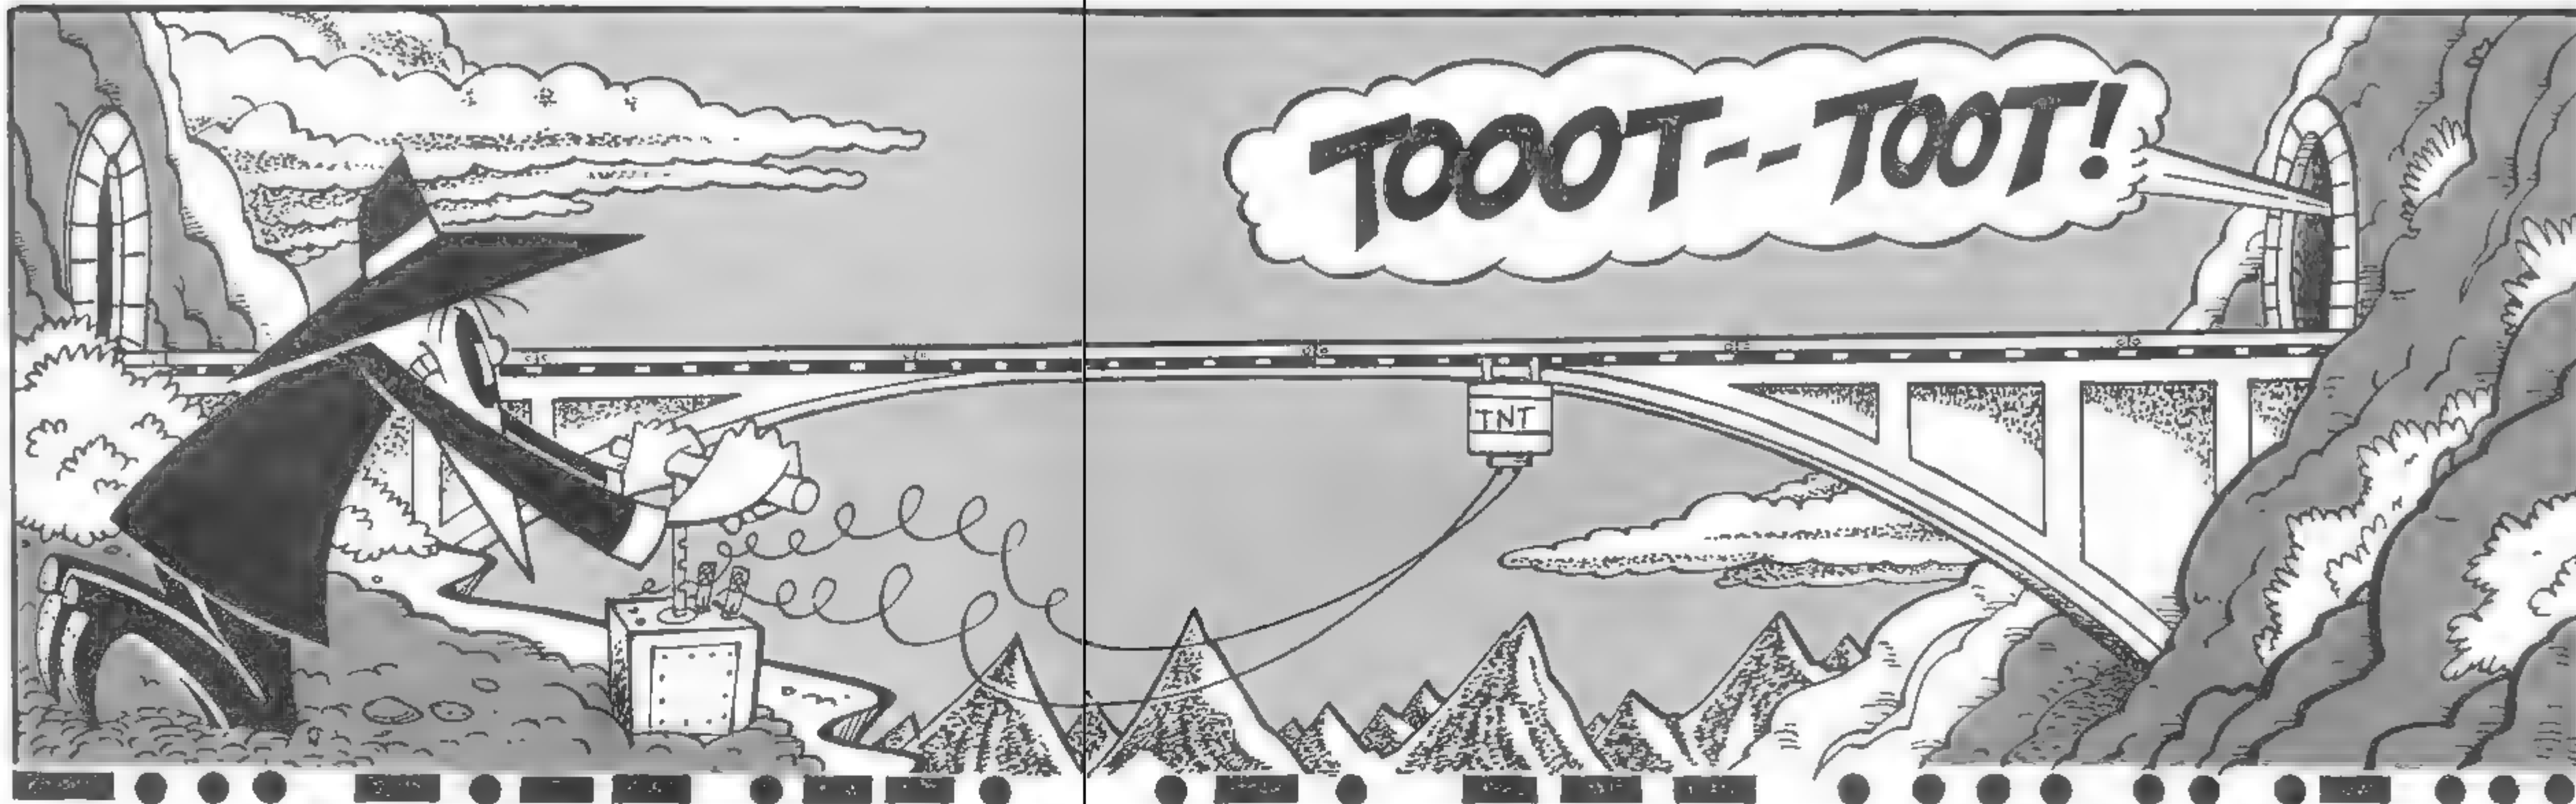

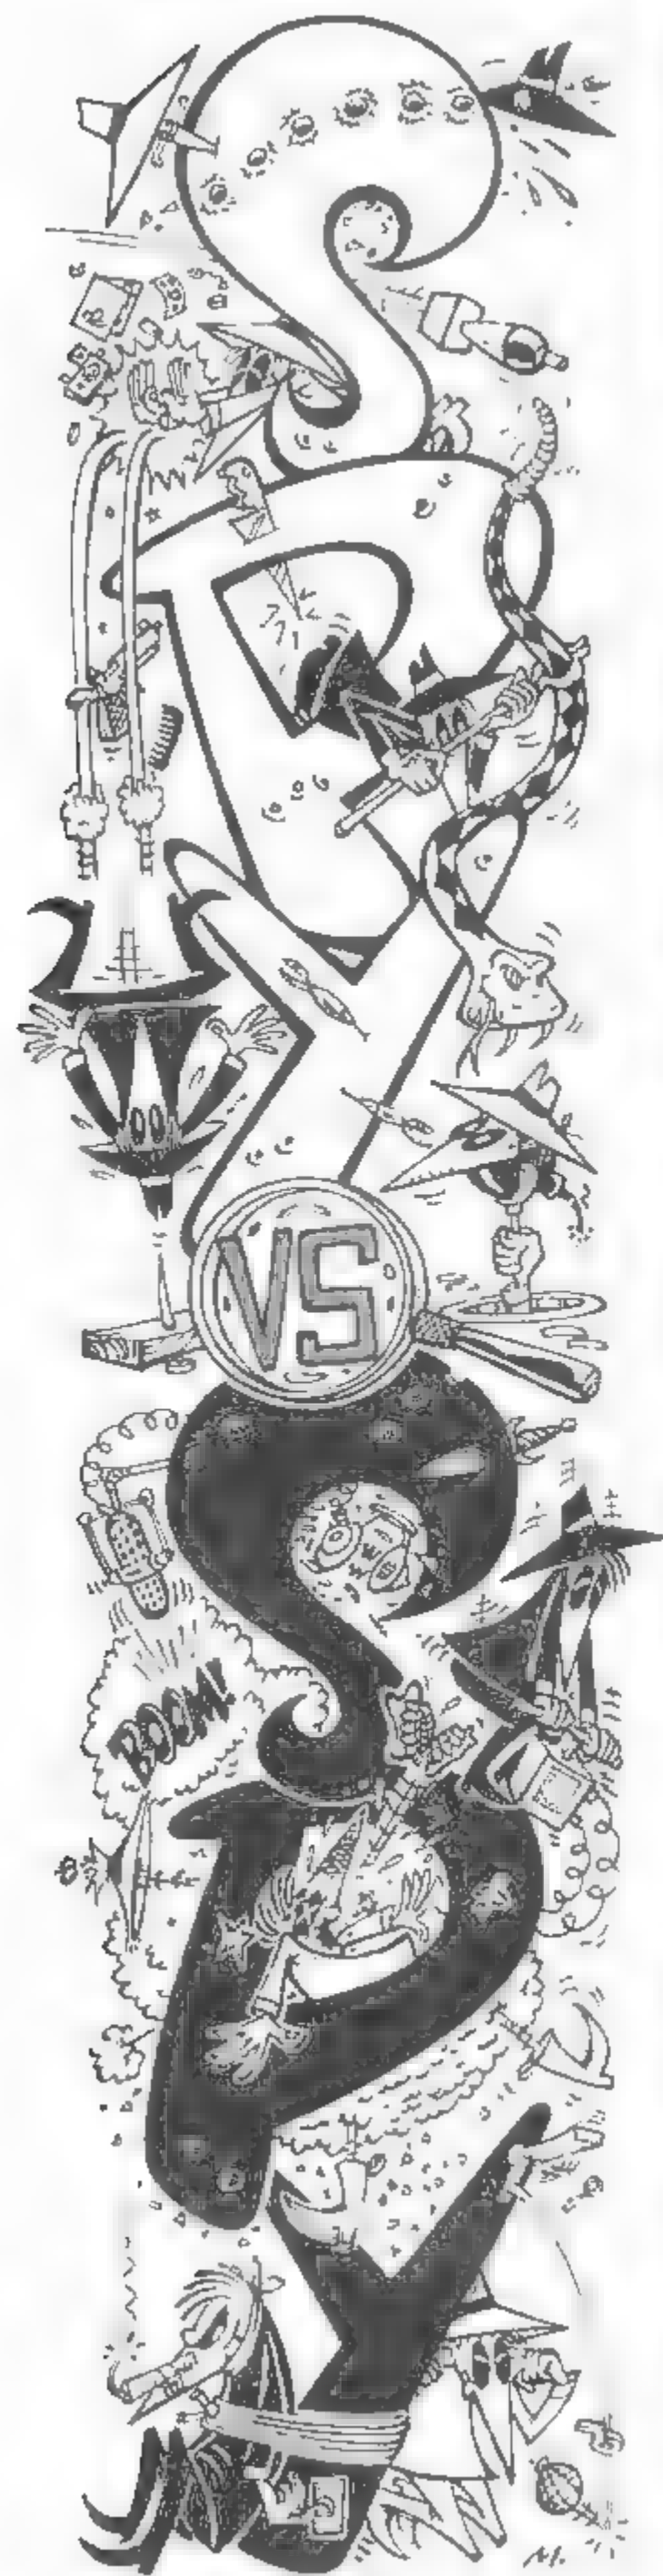

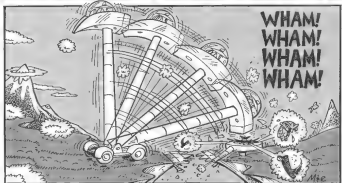

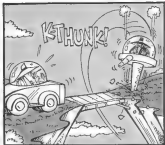

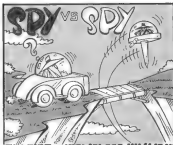

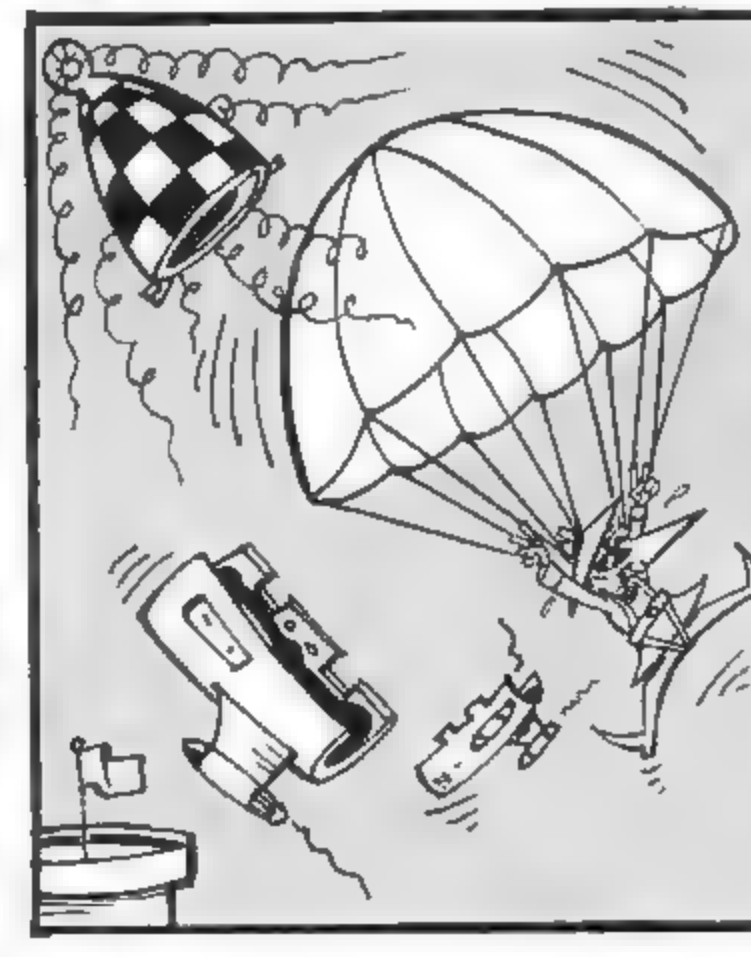

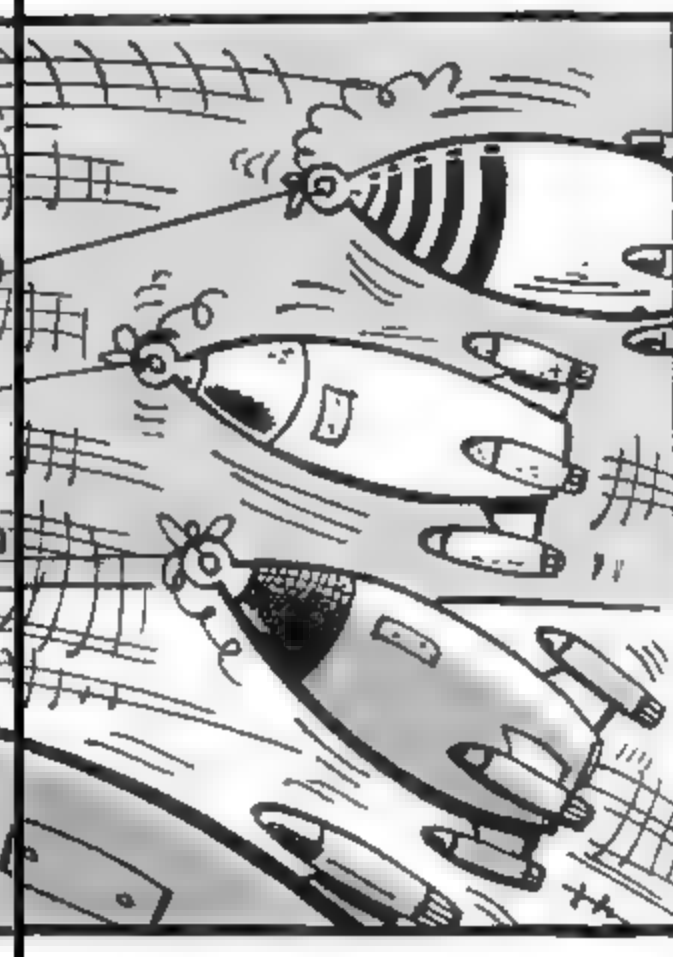

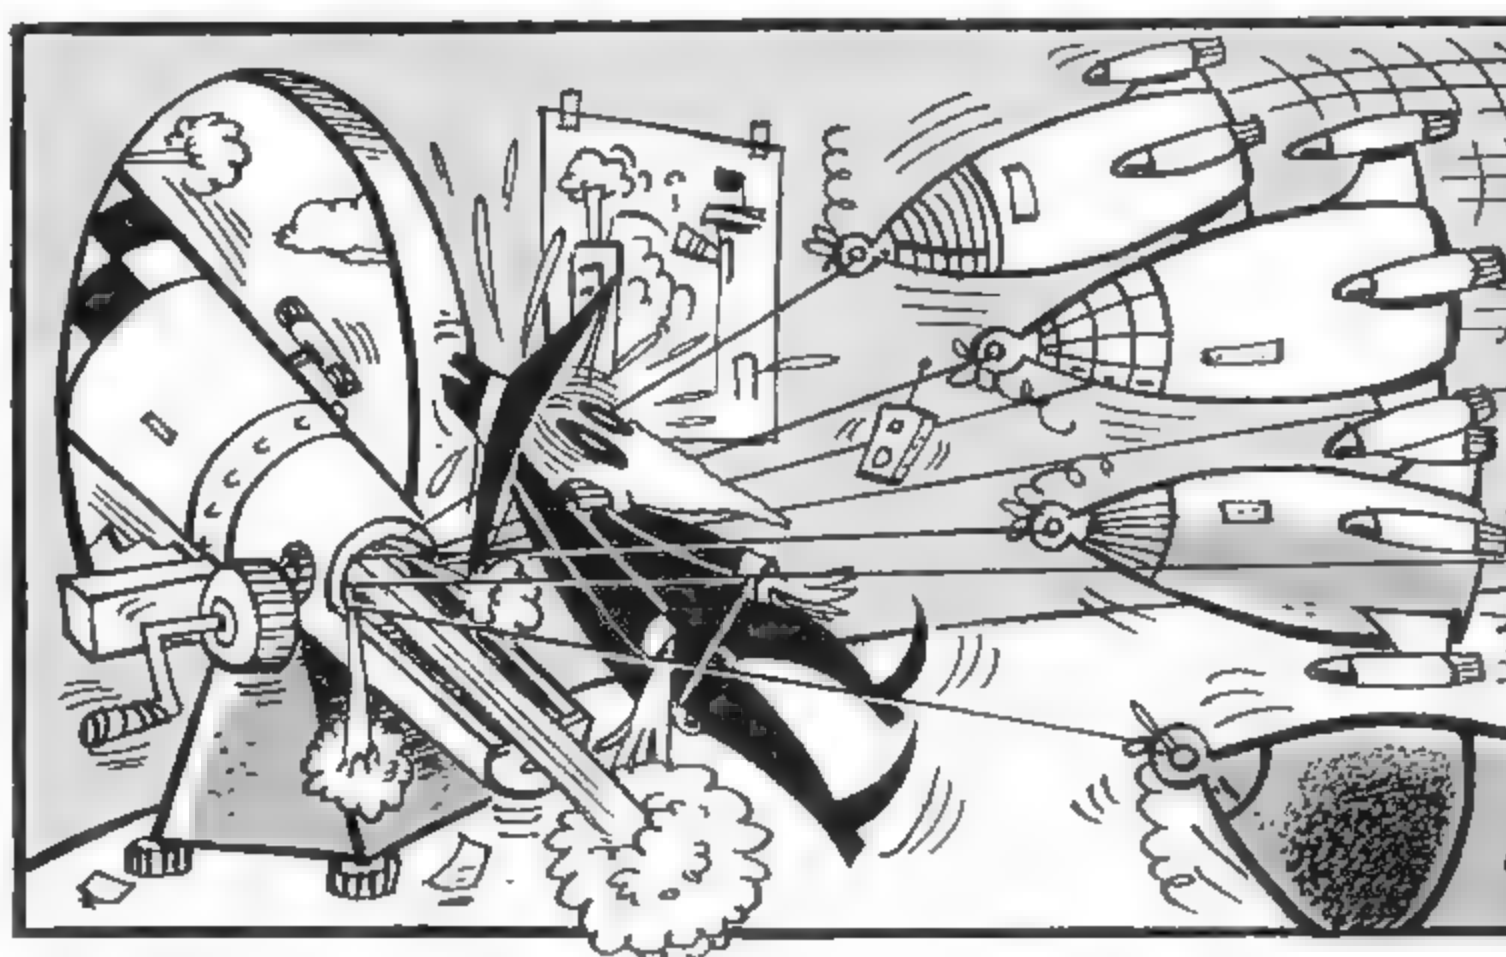

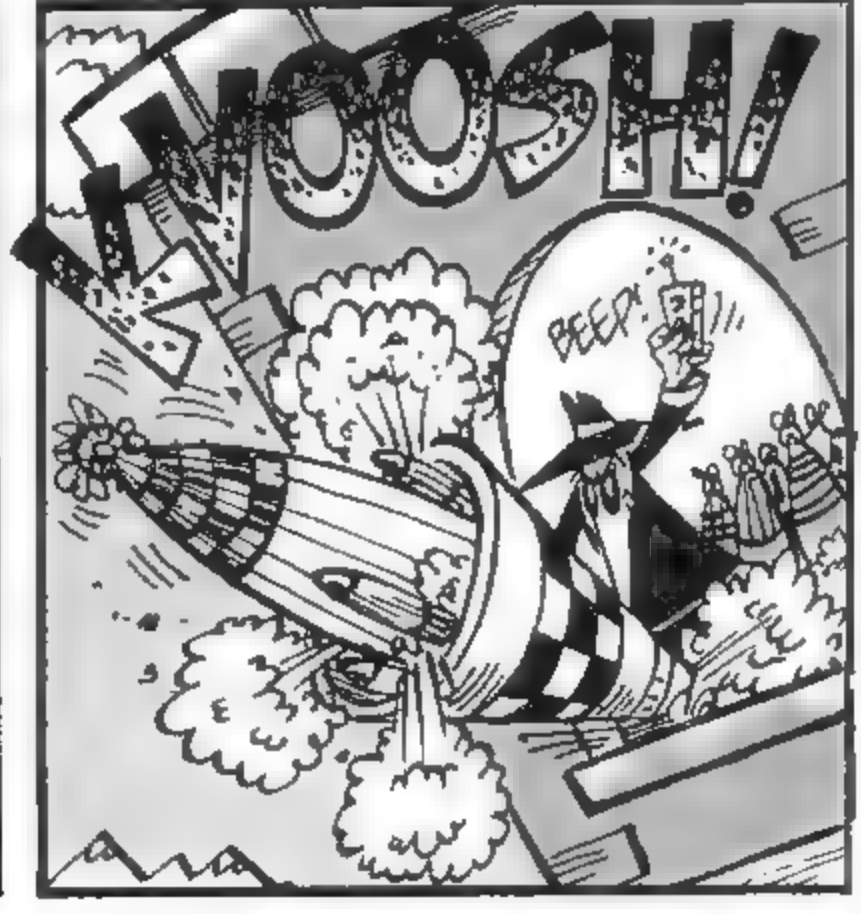

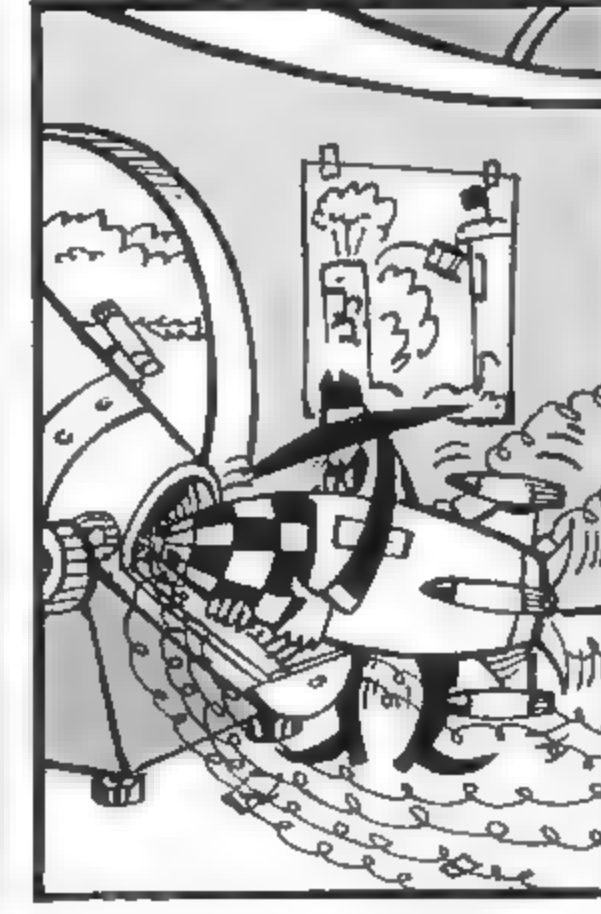

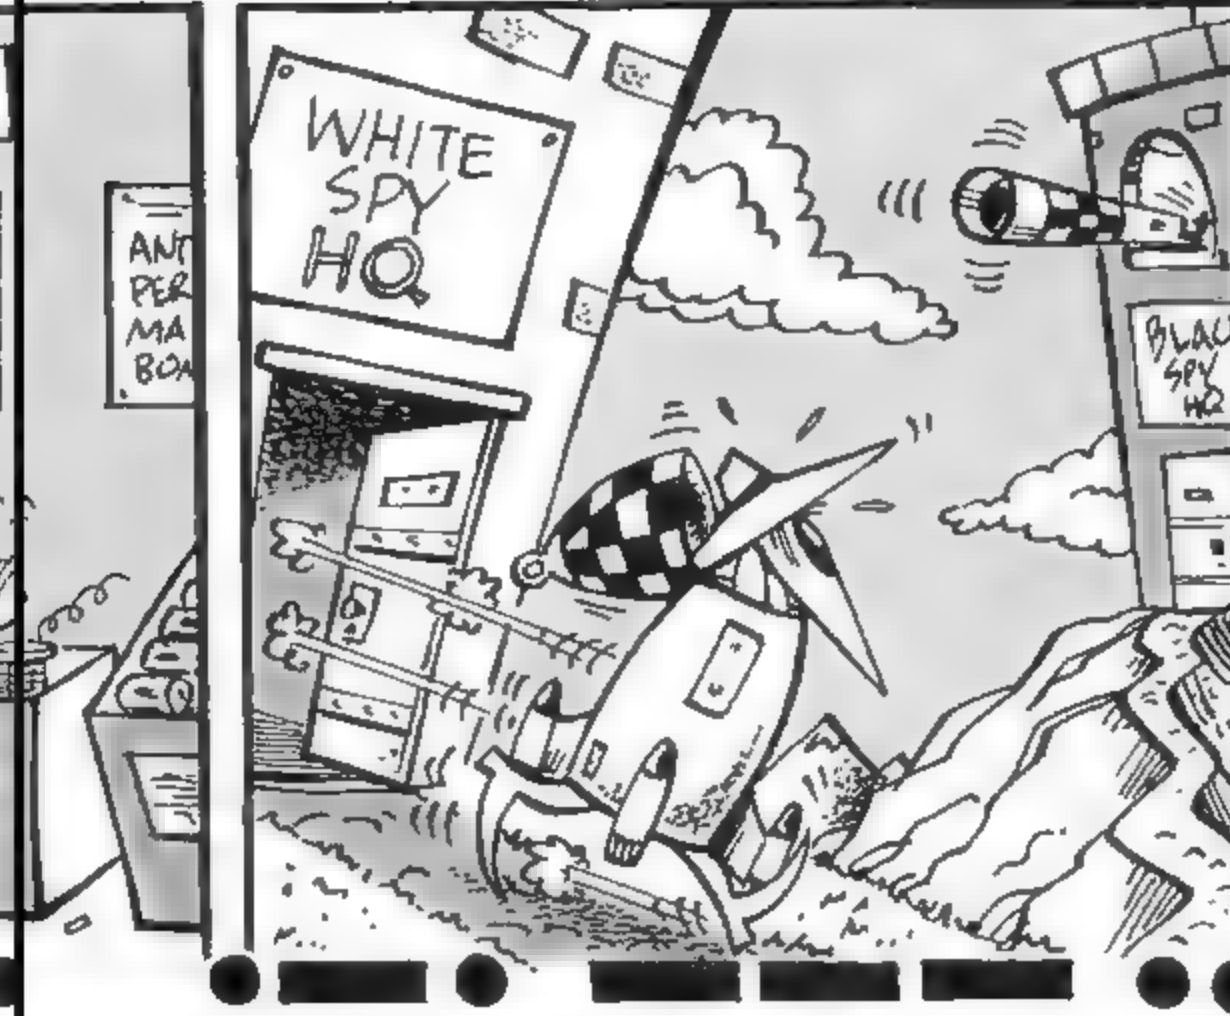

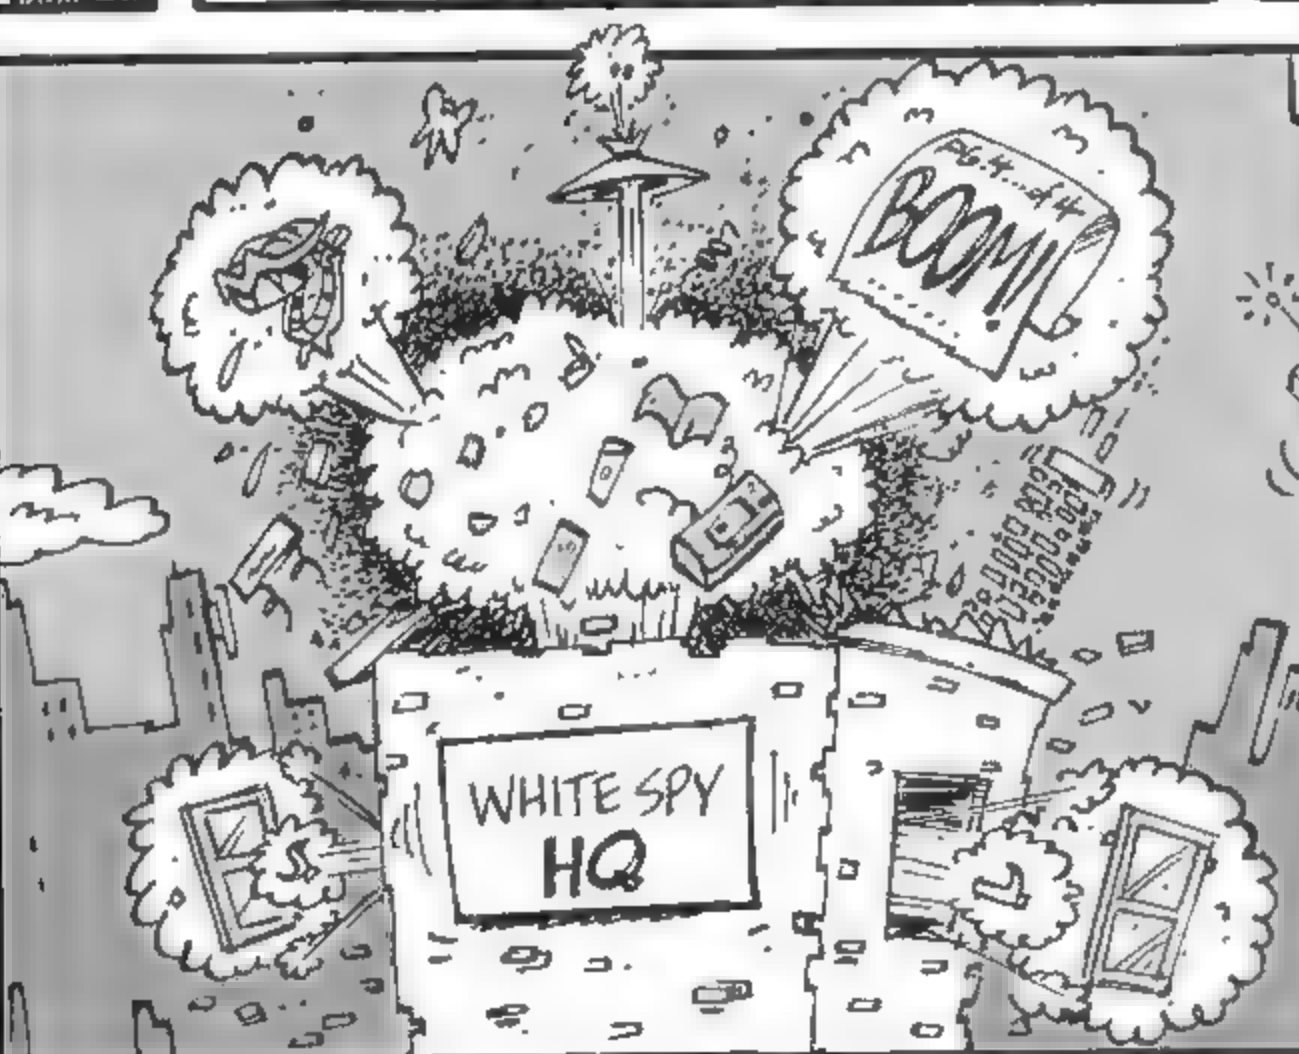

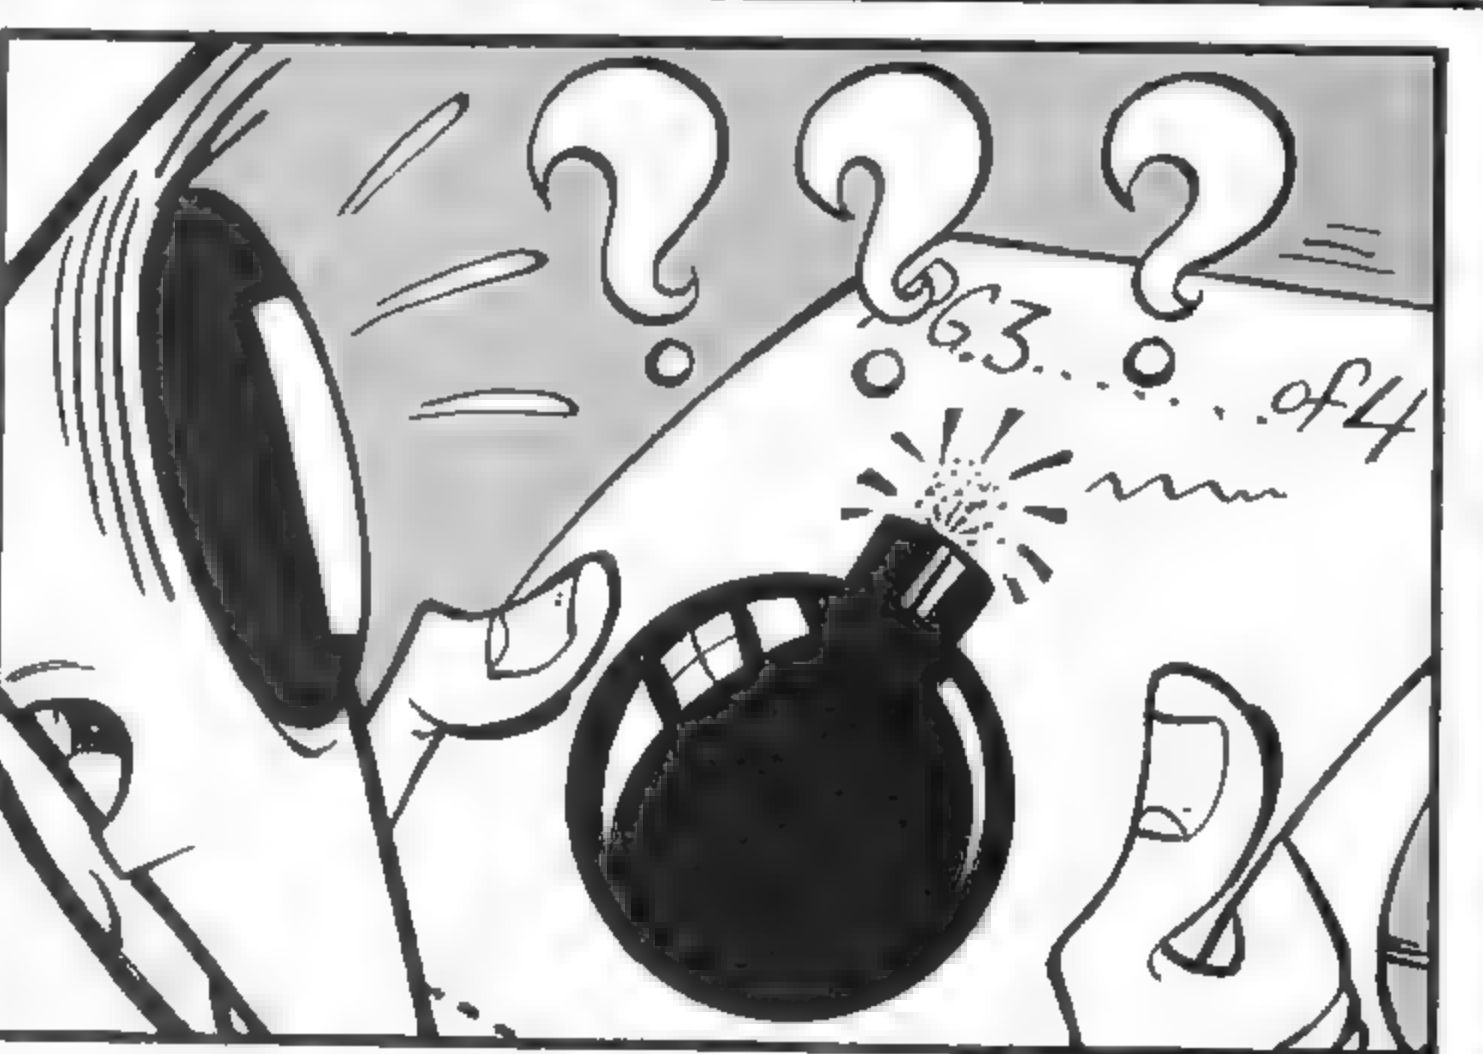

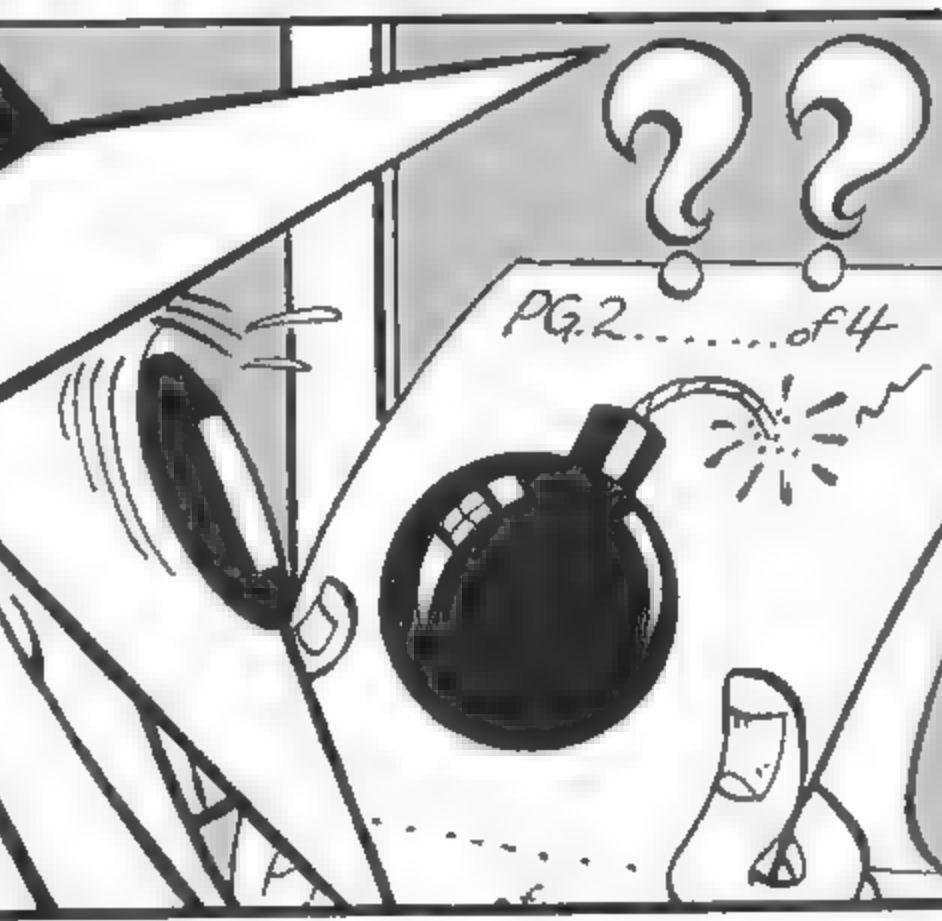

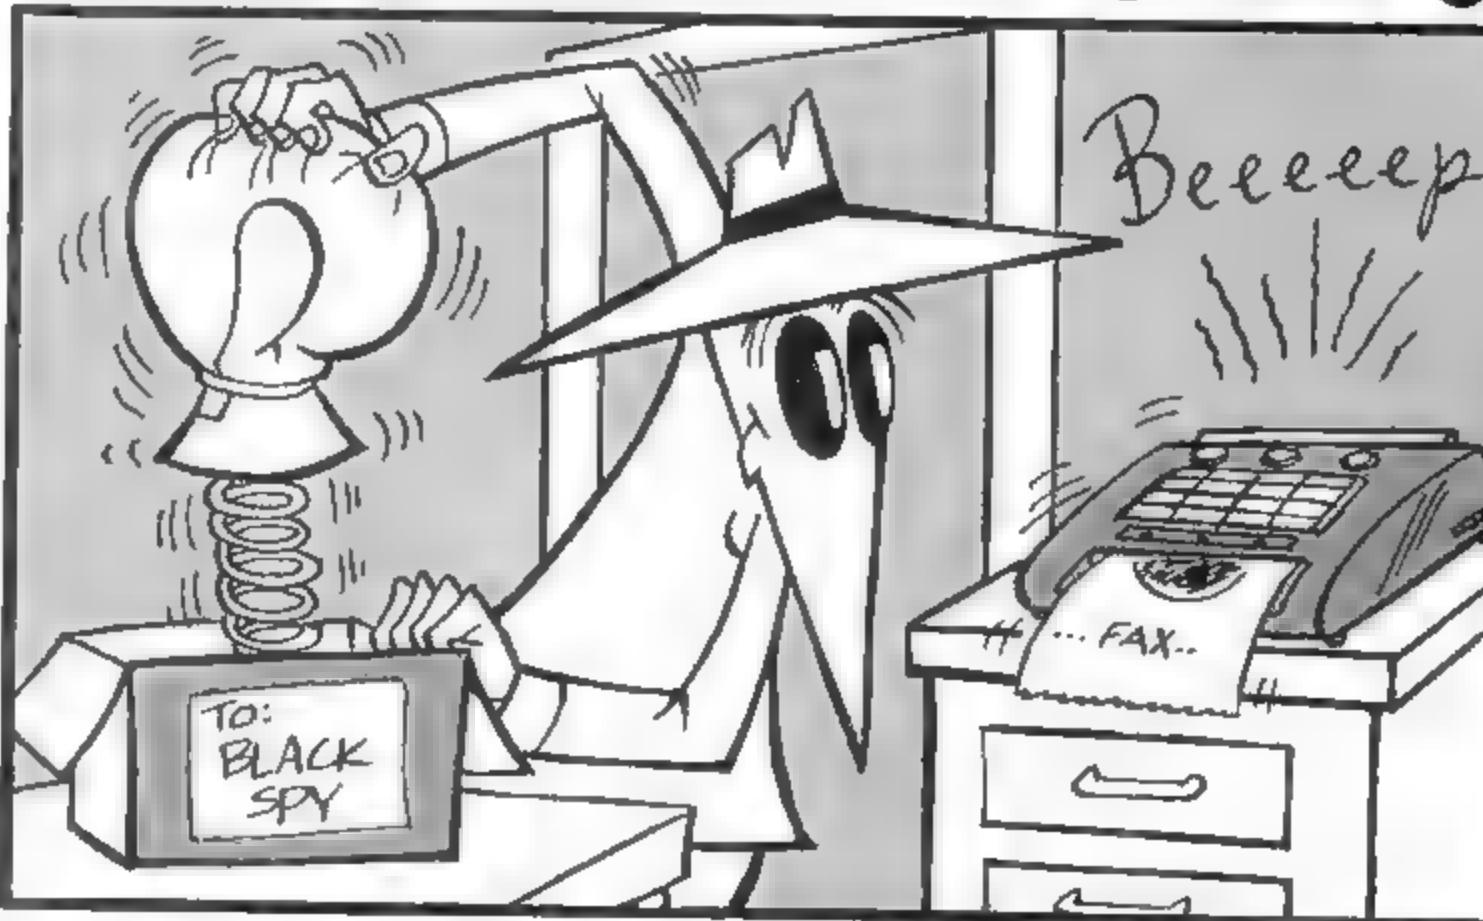

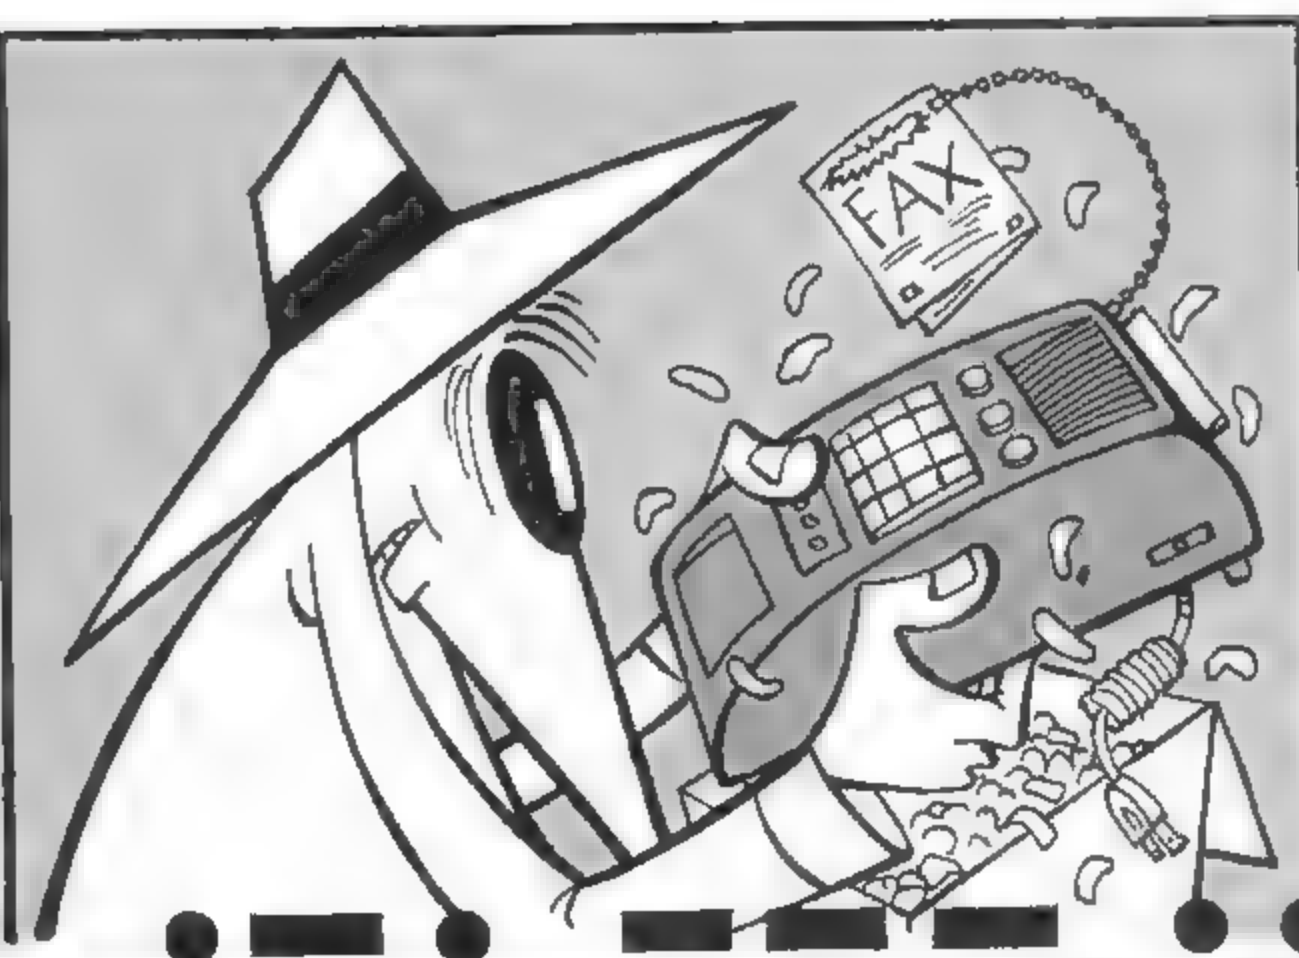

Each of the four panels is a parody of a classic cartoon. In the first, a car is pulled over by a bomb. In the second, the car is launched into the air. In the third, the car is destroyed. In the fourth, the car is destroyed.

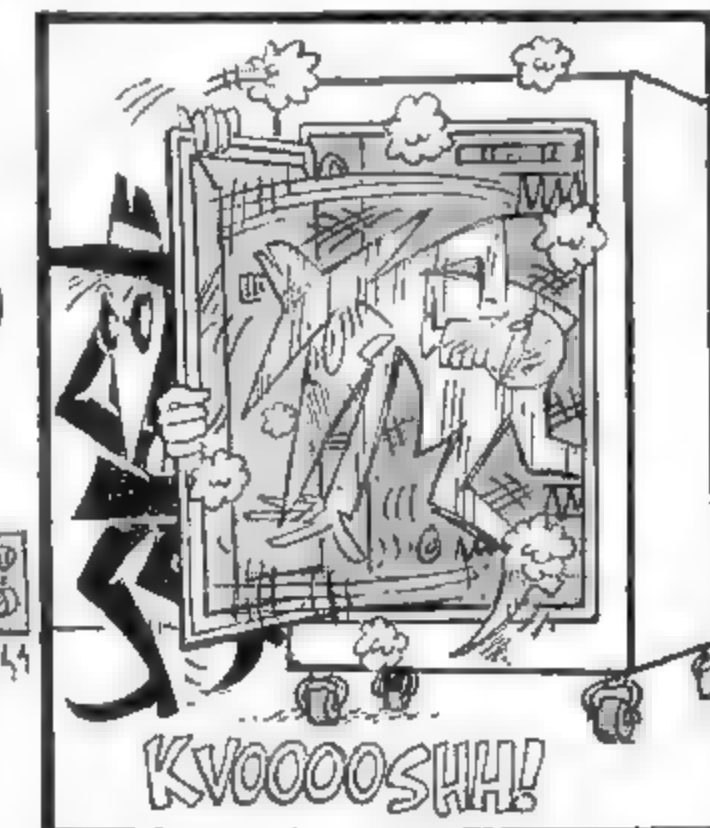

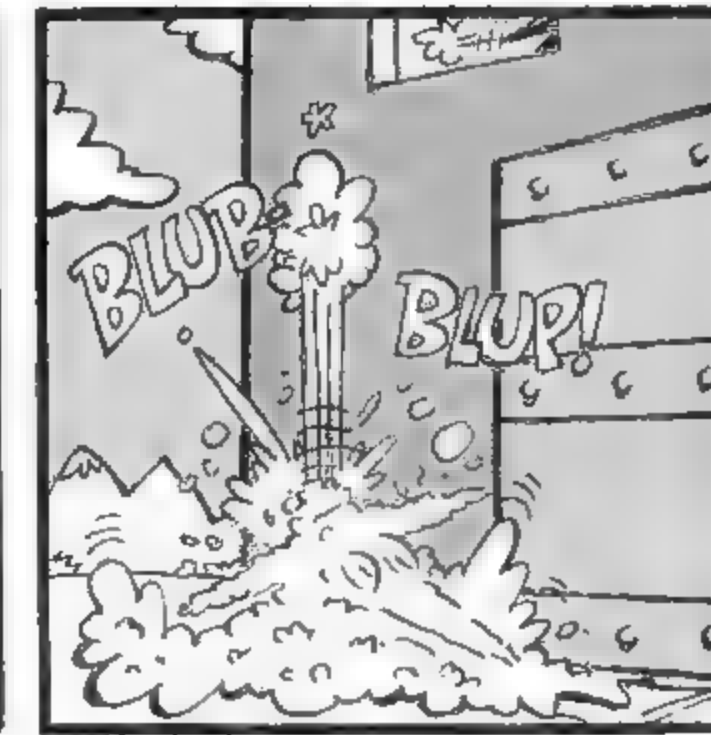

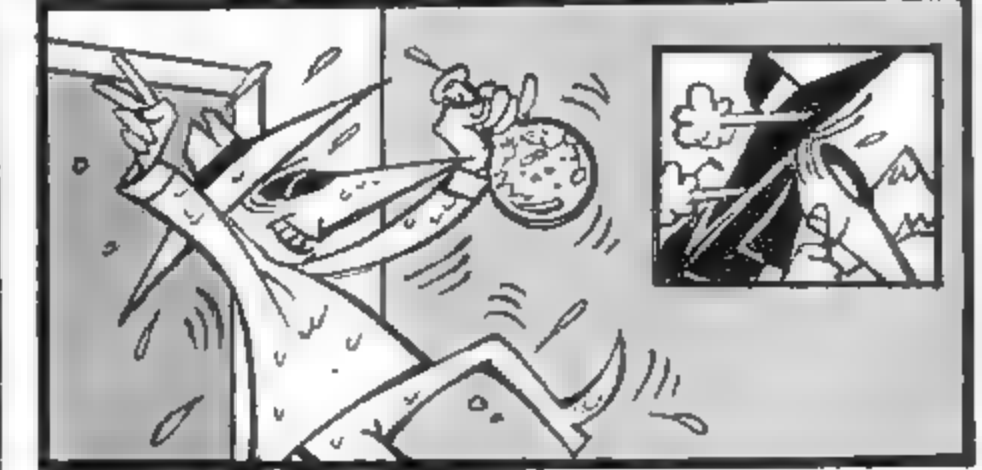

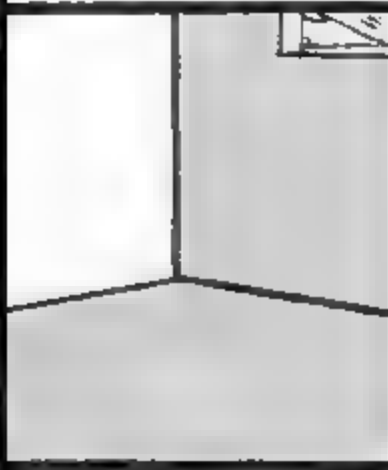

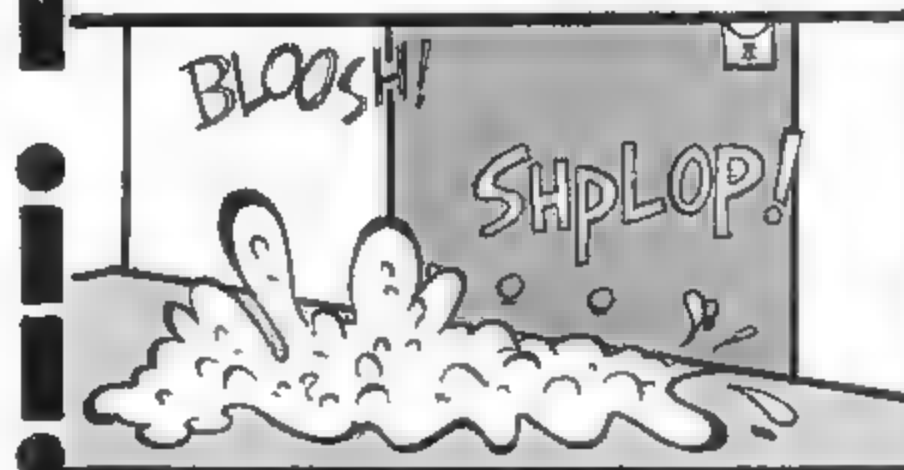

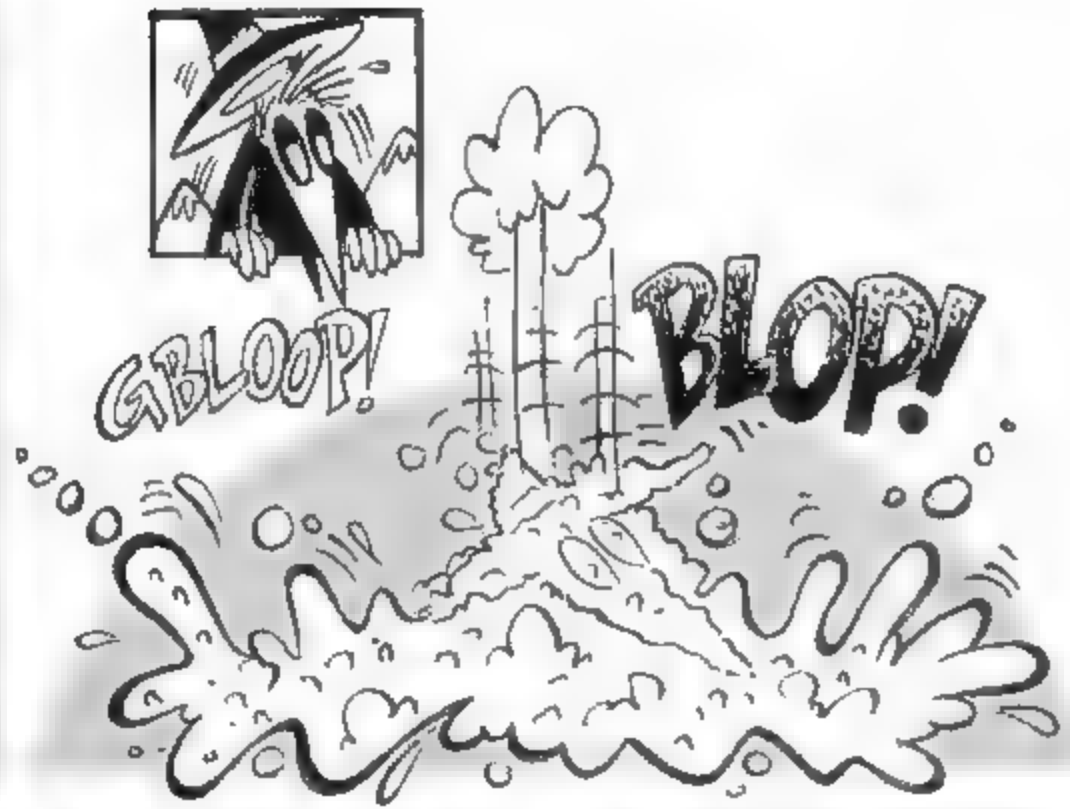

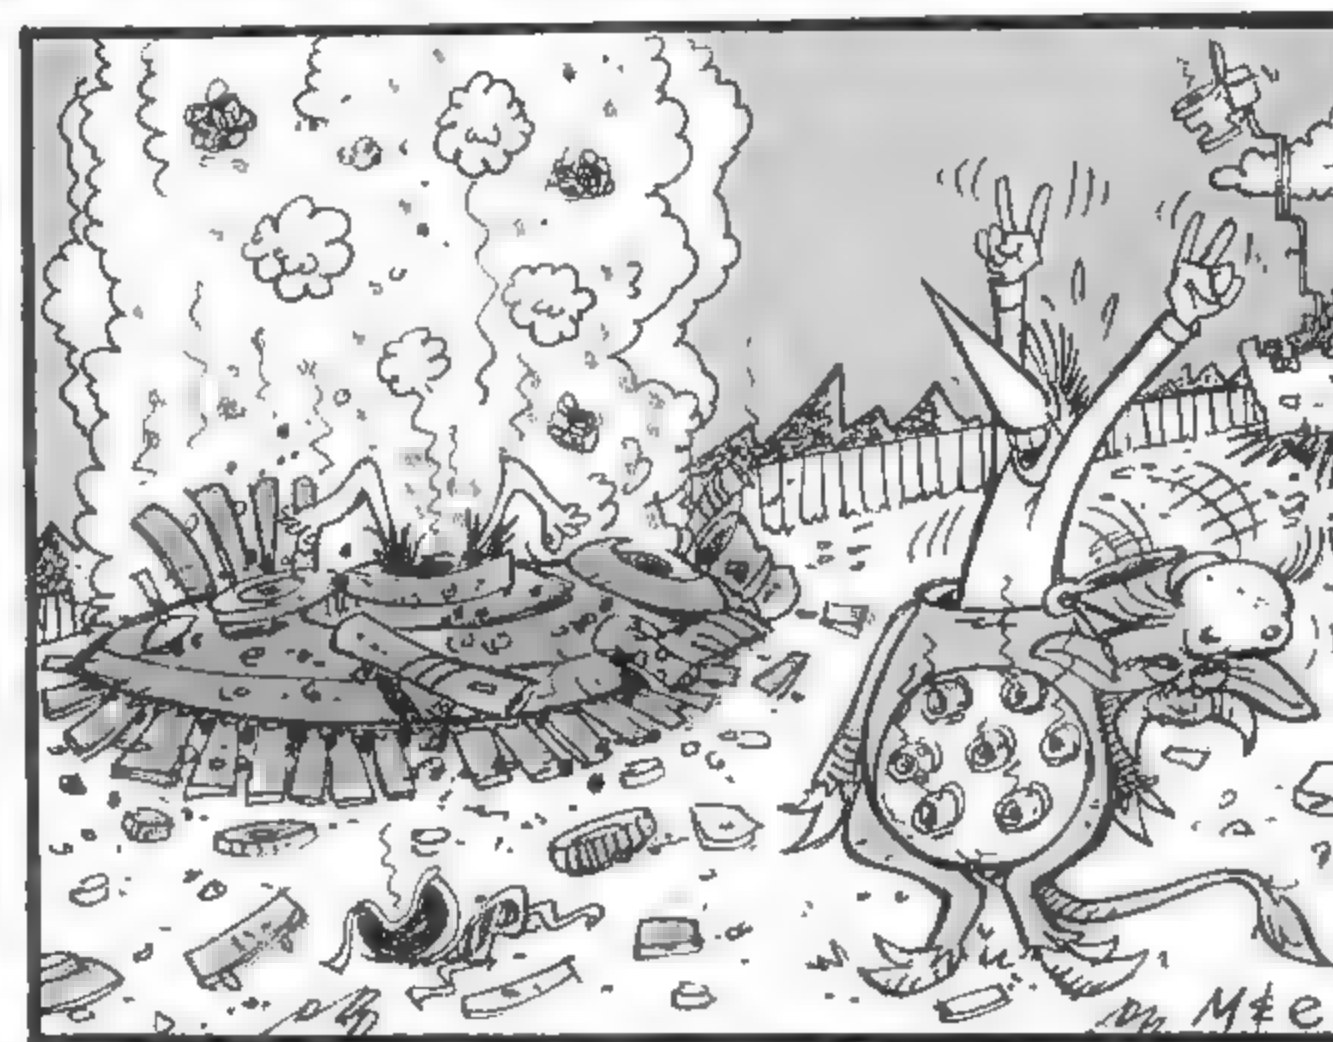

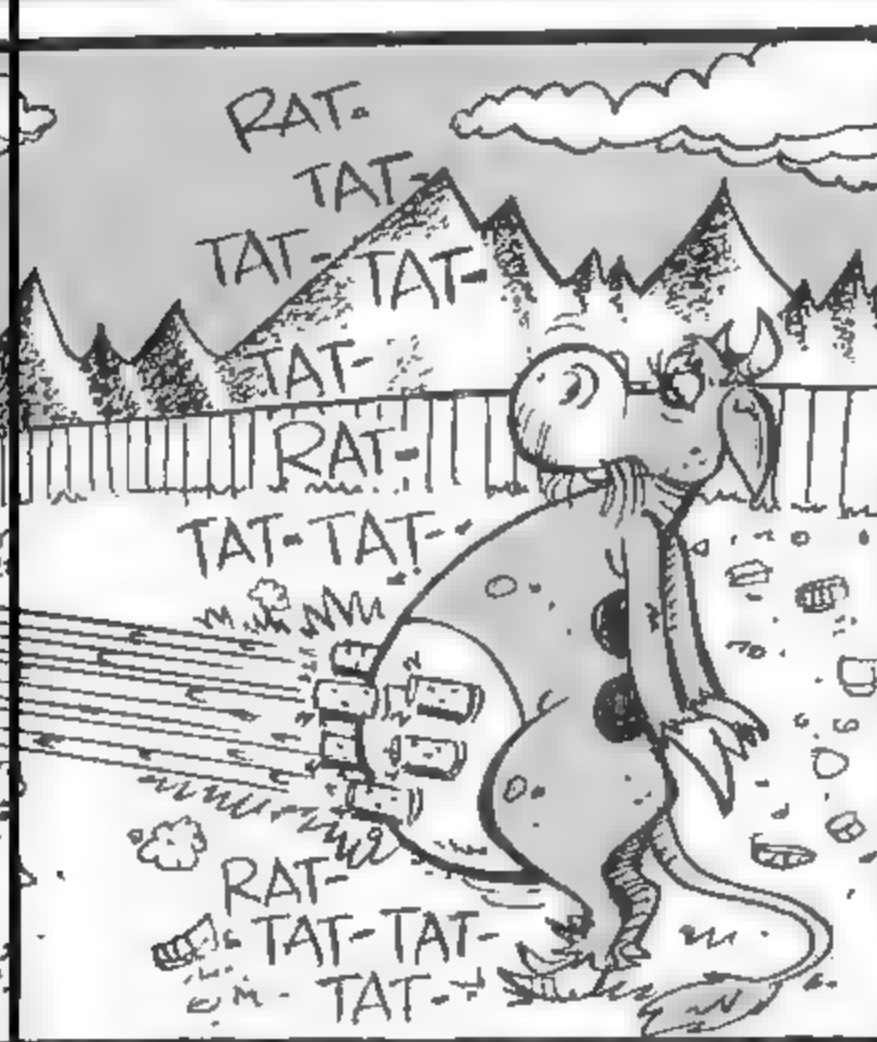

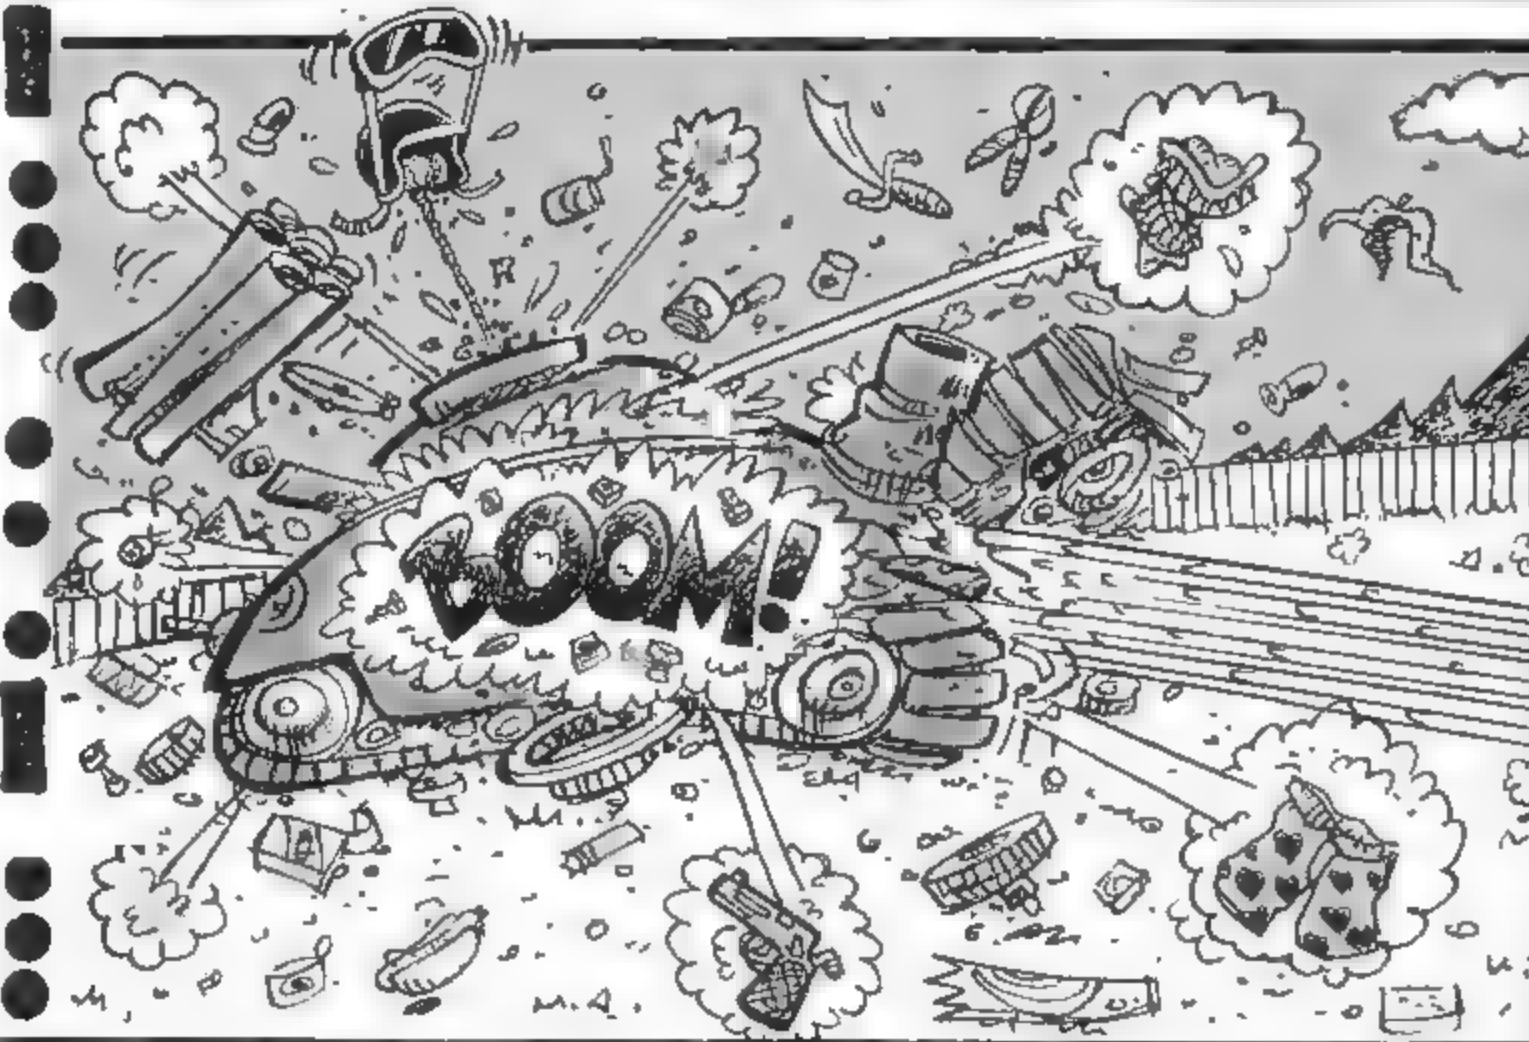

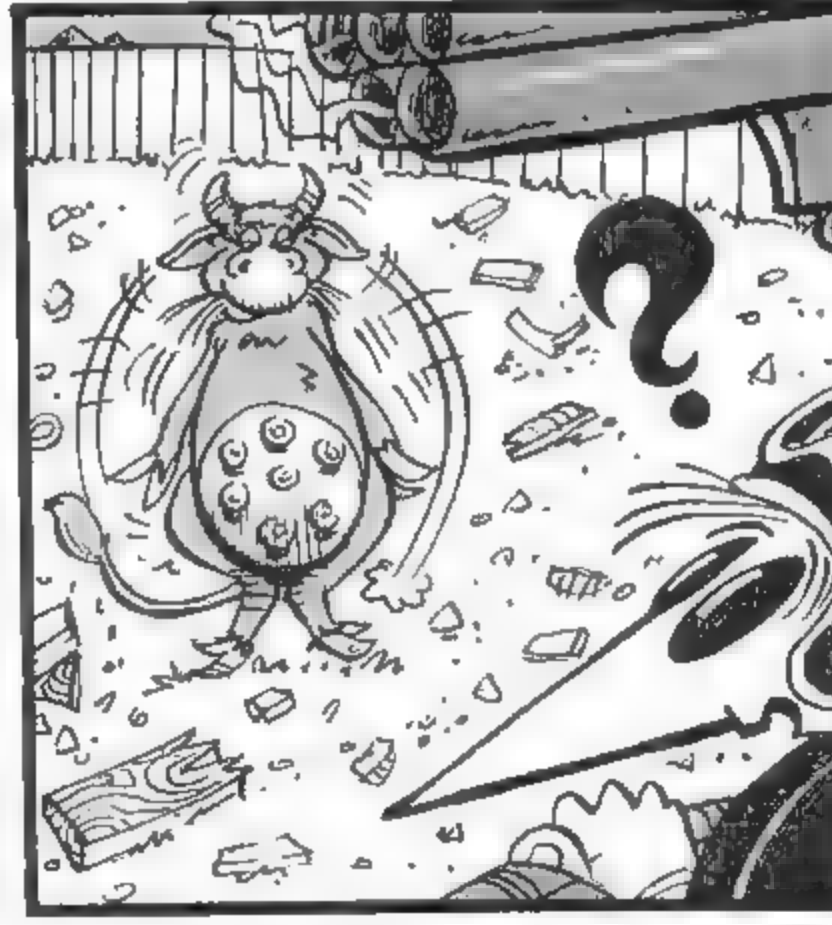

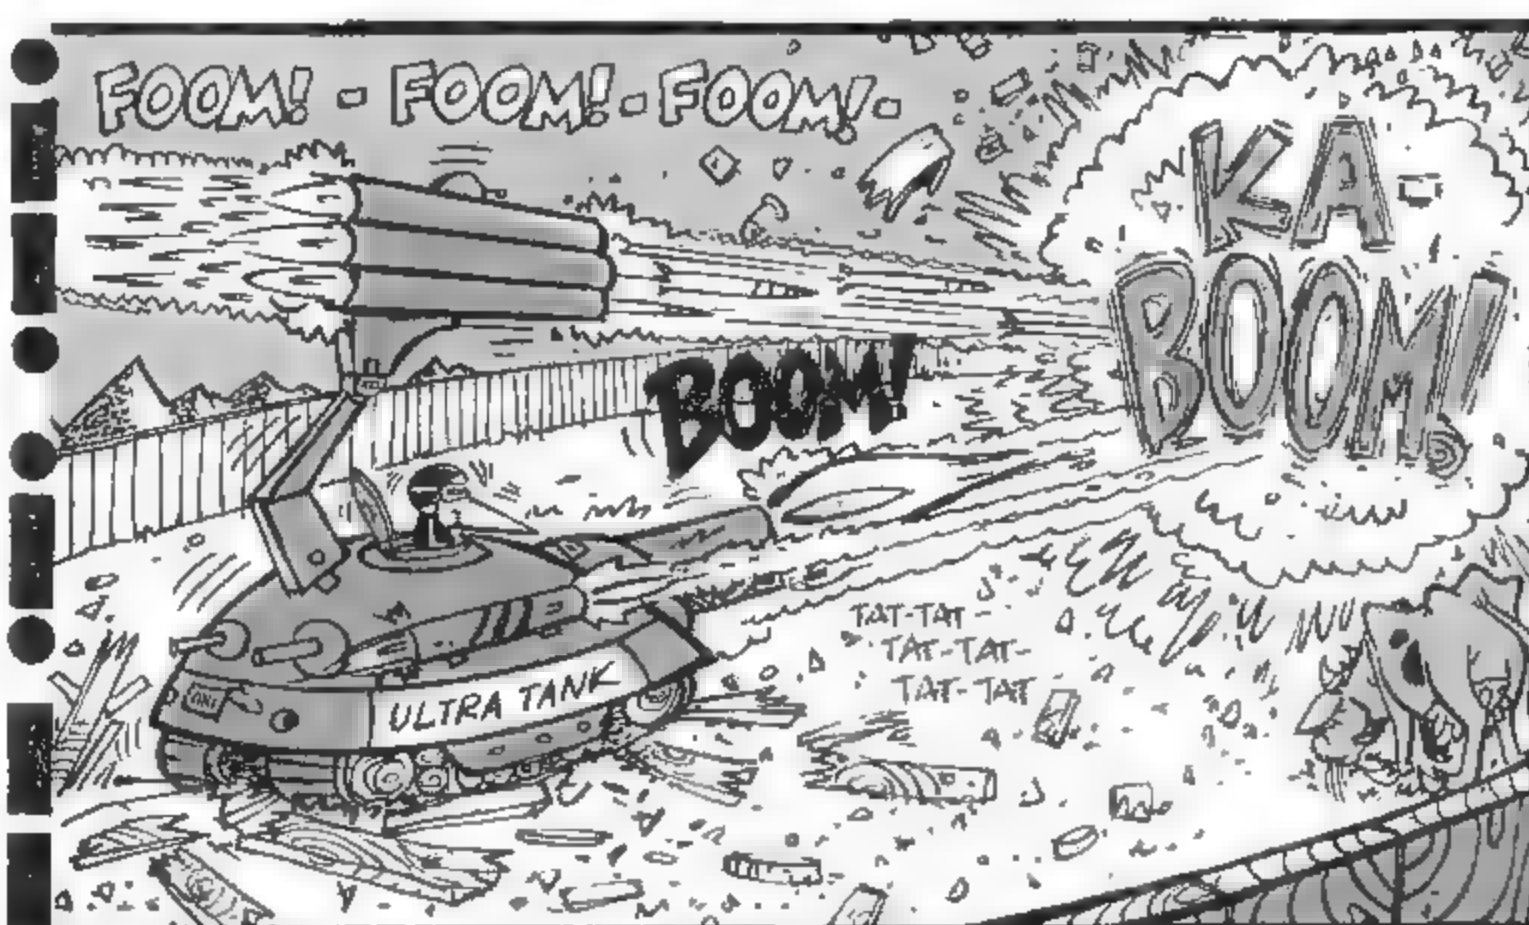

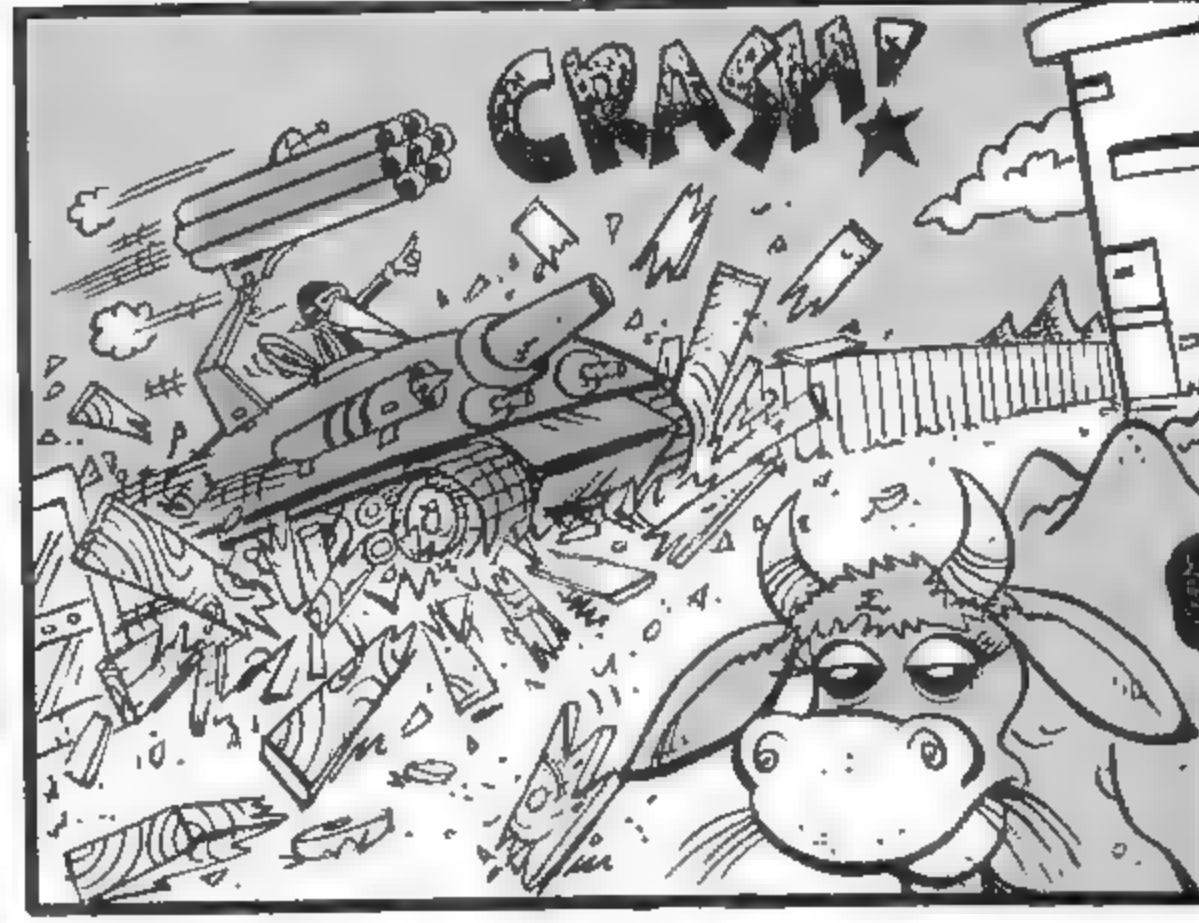

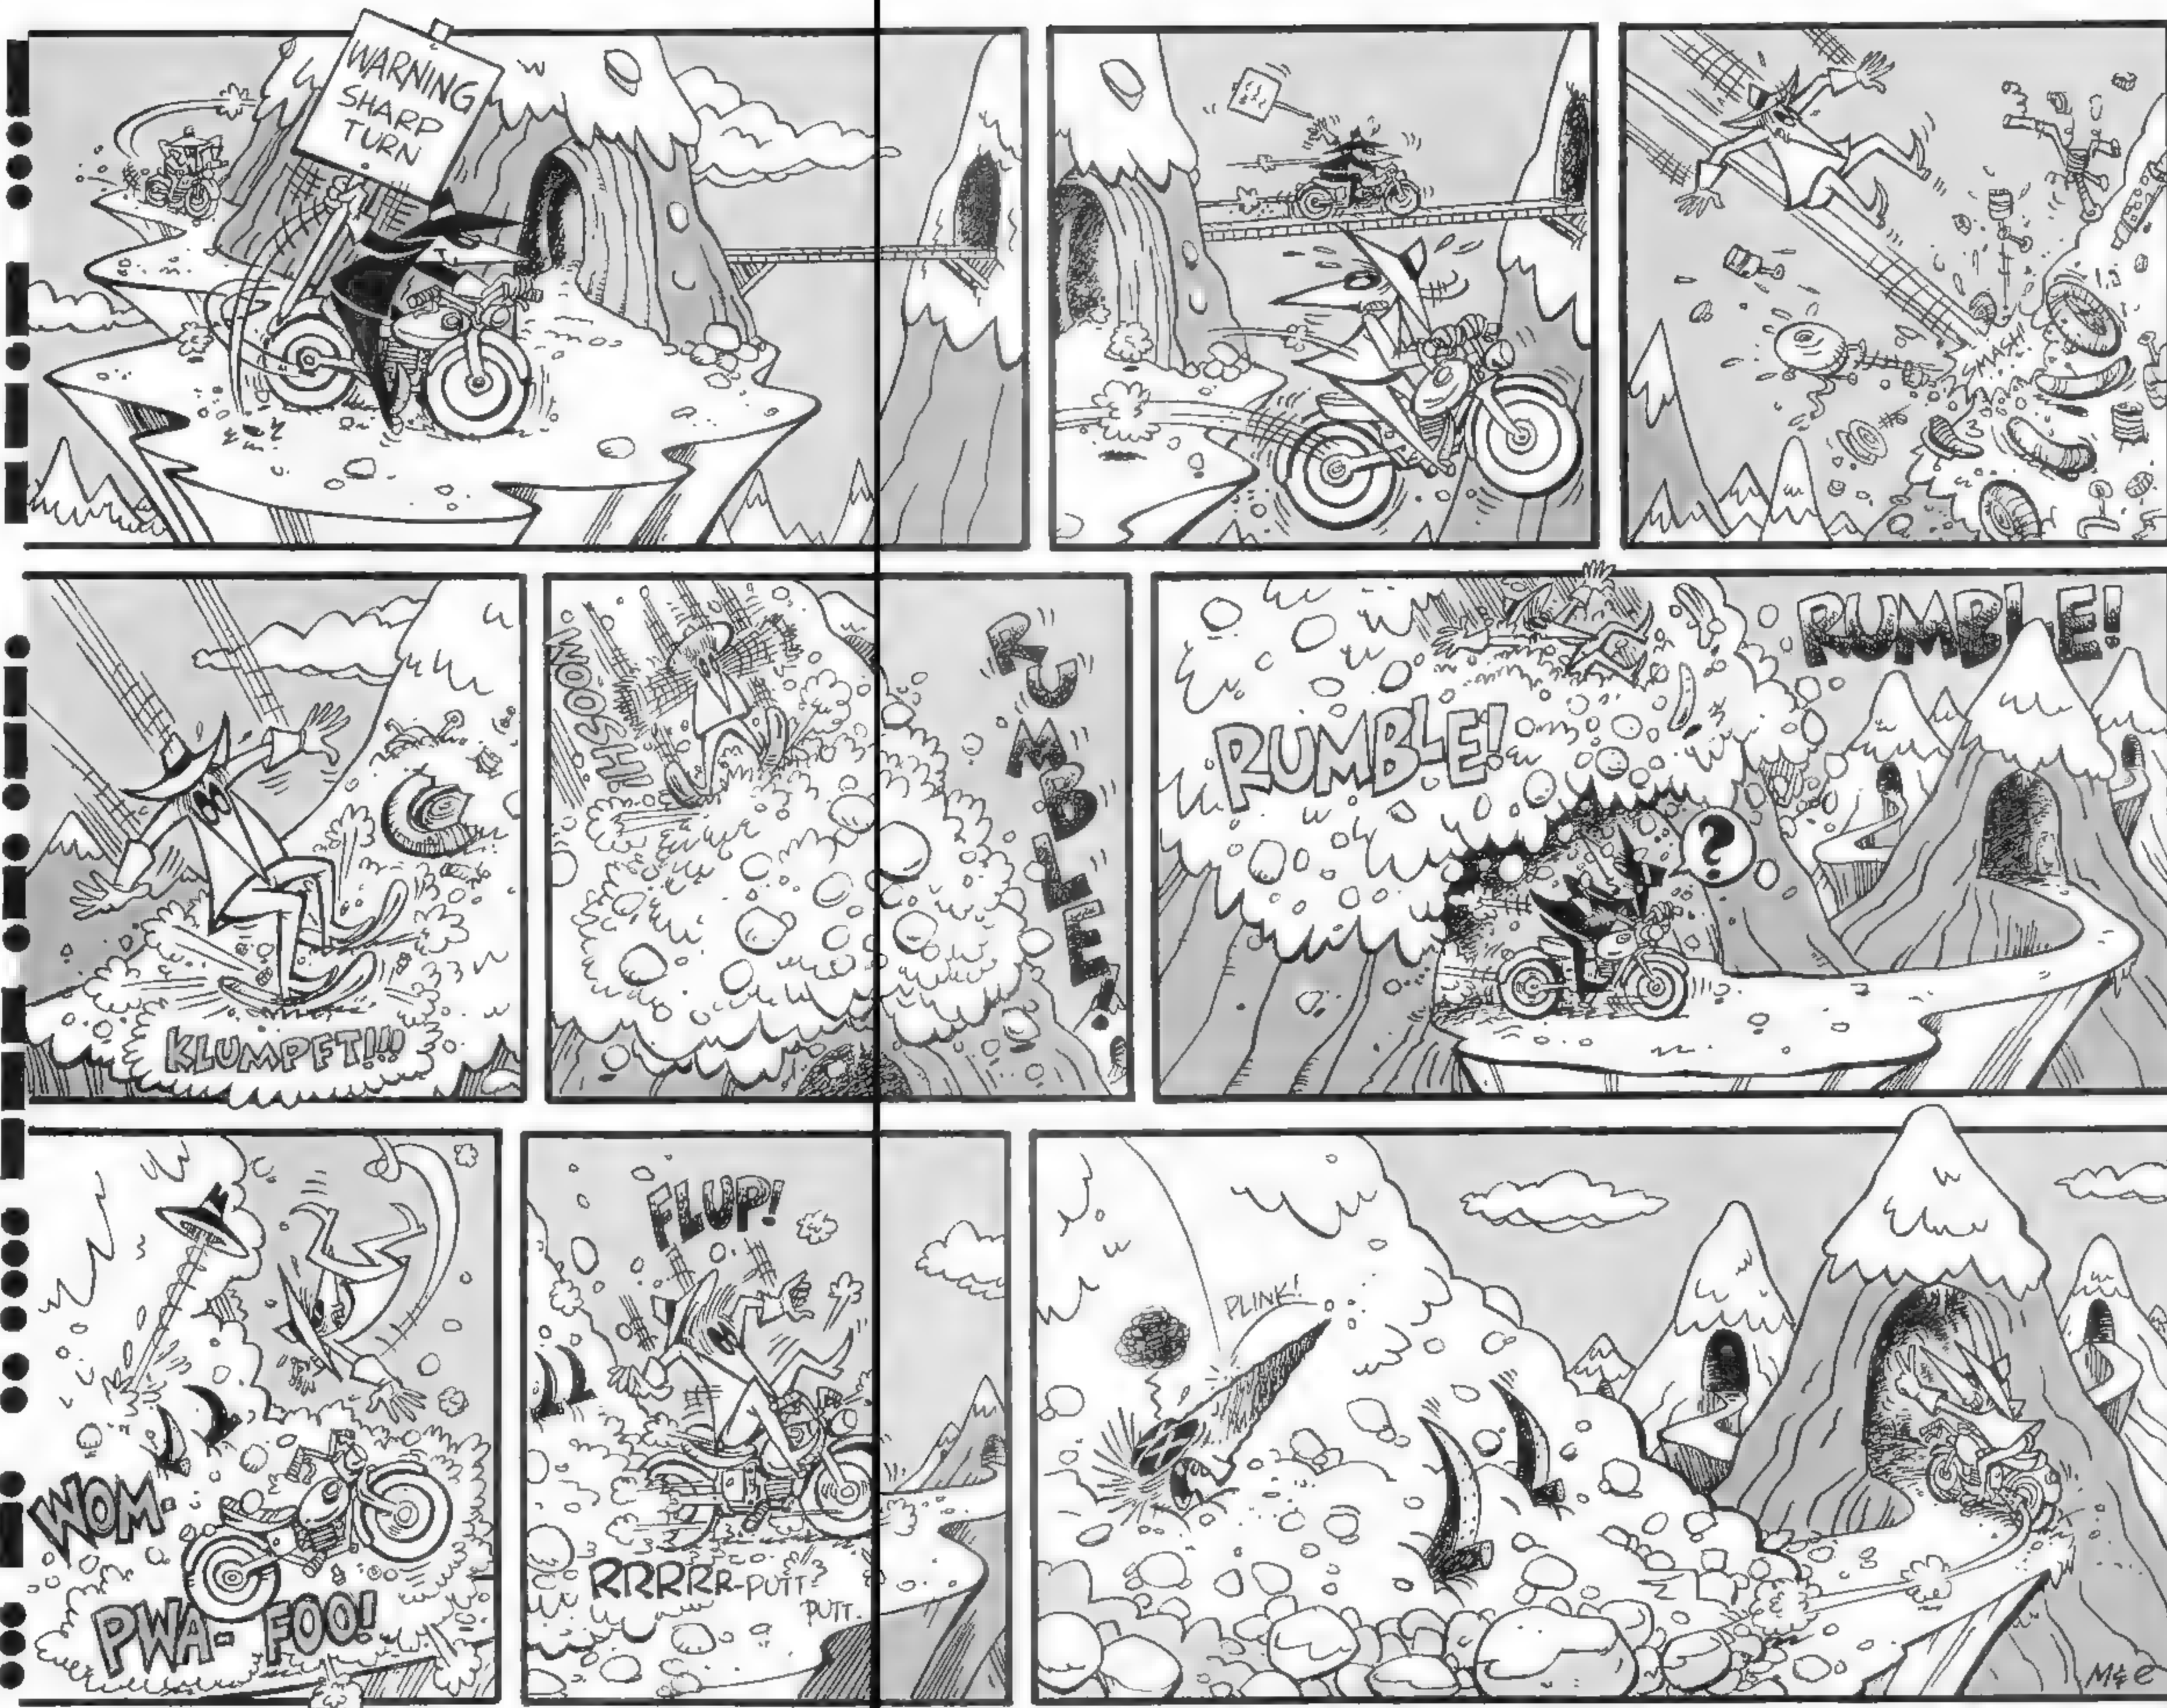

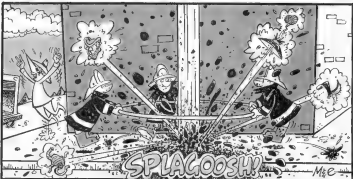

Will the United Nations pass a non-binding resolution condemning the terrorists who just burned the tank? Or will they declare the act?
